

The Victorious Vessel

Vol. 23 ,Q1: January - March 2023

CLASS OF 2022

Congratulations to Bro. JaRon McPherson.

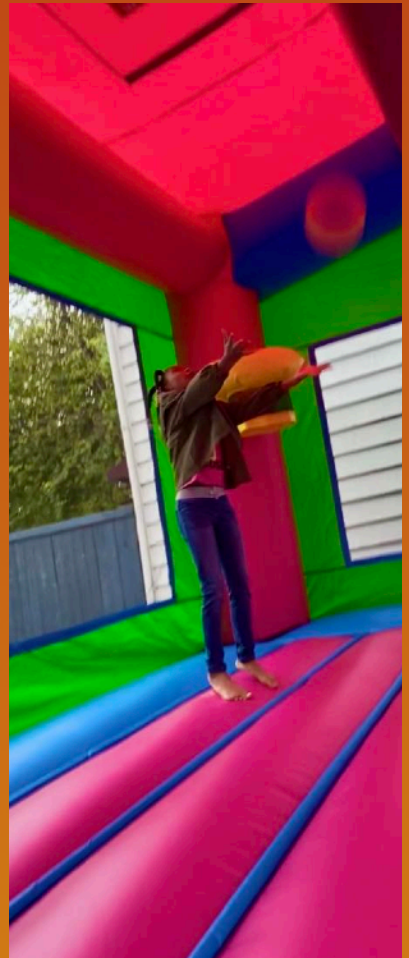

JaRon recently graduated from the University of South Carolina Beaufort with a Bachelor of Science in Science and Technology.

Sister Brenda McPherson is the proud mother; Sis. Kierra Green and Bro. Brendan McPherson are the proud siblings.

MSBC FALL FESTIVAL

The MSBC Fall Festival was held on Saturday, October 29th. The youth and young at heart engaged in various games, face painting, and a jump castle. A fun time was had by all!

THANK YOU!

In the spirit of Thanksgiving, we wanted to give thanks to our tremendous leadership team for all that they do on behalf of MSBC.

Deacon Wendell I. McCoy and Trustee Chair LaPonda Greene were presented with gifts in honor of their service on the 3rd Sunday in November.

Thank you to Deacon Ivan Fields for organizing this surprise presentation.

THINK PINK

In observance of Breast Cancer Awareness Month, the Health Ministry (chaired by Sis. Trindell Miller) partnered with the Food Bank Ministry during their October distribution to take blood pressure readings and disseminate information about breast cancer awareness.

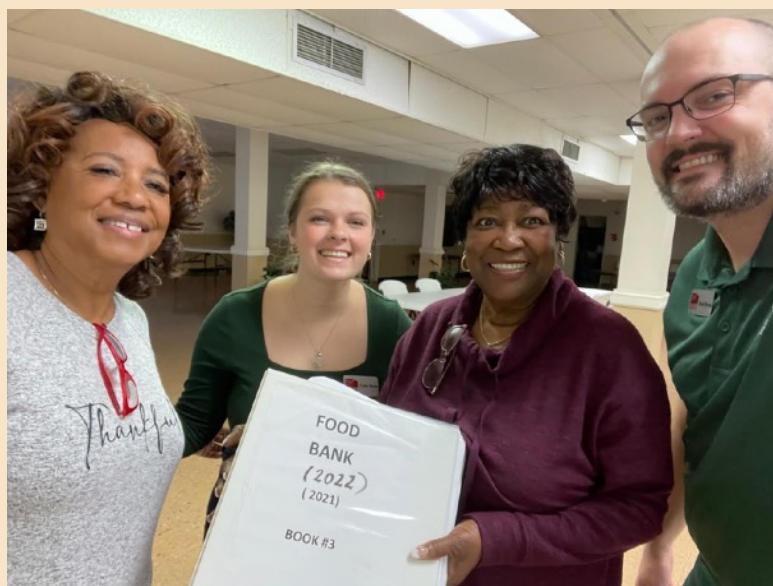

CASUAL SUNDAY

October 30th marked the return of “Casual Sunday.” Members and visitors alike were welcomed to wear their favorite pair of sneakers, jeans, and/or t-shirt or jersey.

FOOD BANK MINISTRY

On December 9th, Food Bank Ministry members, Emily Smith (Chairperson) and Elise McFarland met with Ryan Brown, Director of Agency Relations and Danielle Decker, Nutrition Coordinator of Lowcountry Food Bank and the church for a site visit to inspect MSBC Food Bank program and records. During their visit, there were no corrective findings found, and MSBC received an A +.

SEASON OF THANKSGIVING

Our Food Bank Ministry served over 60 families just in time for the Thanksgiving holiday. Turkeys for the November food bank distribution were donated courtesy of State Farm Agents John Acker and Windy Plank.
